Ozo Golf Club's course has 18 holes and its total driving range length is 6,400m. Superbly designed by landscape architect Rob Swedbergs on the shores of Riga's Kisezers Lake, the course has 16 artificial ponds and 50 sand pits. In front of the clubhouse, there is both a chipping green and putting green. Expert instructors await beginners, and corporate outings are also an Ozo Club specialty. Relax, enjoy a fine meal in BLOOM RESTAURANT, a favorite place for both golfers and connoisseurs. With a private/public policy in force, the course is open to everyone, while the changing room, sauna, pool and baggage check - for members only. Ozo Golf Club received recognition in 2002 as the most outstanding landscape architecture project in Latvia, but in 2004 it was selected by Robert Sidorsky as one of 365 courses in the world worth visiting. It is

White Beach Golf is a links type course. The fairways are wide, well-maintained with a soft turf which protects the players' hands from contusions. The rough is short and there are no big height differences on the course and therefore playing is easy also for seniors. Nevertheless there are no holes, where there isn't a possibility to hit the ball into water. The total area of water obstacles is nearly 19 hectares. If we add to that the constantly blowing strong sea breeze, we get a golf course, the successful playing of which is challenging for even experienced golf players.

The course was designed by architect Lassi Pekka Tilander with Mick McShane as the lead shaper, best known as the lead shaper for world-famous St. Andrews Links' Castle Course and Kingsbarns Golf Links. The course is the first links course in the Baltic region and features wide fairways and expansive sand areas, as well as multi-levelled greens with bold movement. The par-72 course plays from 4,500 to 6,200 meters. World Golf Awards has recognised Pärnu Bay Golf Links as Estonia's Best Golf Course in 2016 and 2017.
